	X wtte ℔ 2 No 9158-9 Med 181-12 dated 19-5-13 the said post of Manager is now vacant The Senior Surgeon states that for reasons given in his letter an official well versed in the auditing of accounts is desirable for the post and recommends that C. Raghunatha Rao who has been recommended by the Comptroller and who is now an Asst Examiner and Superintendent of the Local Audit Deptt of the Comptroller's office on Rs 100/- in the grade of Rs 70-5-100, may be appointed as Manager of the Senior Surgeon's office Subt for orders 19/5-6-13 (2) D/Secy) 19/5/13 (3) The Offcial nominated by the Senior Surgeon for the vacant post of the Manager of this office draws the pay of Rs 100 per mensem and is the Head of Local Audit Depart. His Offcial Superior, the Comptroller, speaks well of the capacity of the Offcial to manage an office. It does not appear to be the duty of the Manager, however, to audit District Hospitals as this is assigned to the Personal Assistant to the S.S under the G. O. (Flag W). of Nov 05 and further, touring on his part would interfere the management of the office

It is not understood why the Sr. Surgeon should want of his Dept. the work of a manager. It will not be found in the Officials of the Dept. Besides, it is learnt, that the late Sr. Surgeon Mr. Forsyth has left Medical an record, which is not to the credit of the candidate now recommended by the present Sr. Surgeon in connection with the audit of the accounts of the Chikmagalur Dispensary. I should like to see those papers which may be called for from the Sr. Surgeon's office if not available in the Secretariat. Submitted to His Highness.

These papers relate to the question of the selection of a suitable candidate for the vacant post of the Manager of the Senior Surgeon's Office (on a pay of Rs.100-10-150) which has fallen vacant, consequent on the retirement of Mr. A. Kodandapani Modeliar with effect from the 20th May 1913.

2. The selection of a candidate fully qualified for the place has formed the subject of much discussion and consideration, as the notes on the file will show.

3. It is now proposed to appoint Mr.S. Shiva Rao, a Clerk of the General and Revenue Secretariat, who is one of the four candidates selected for the post by the Senior Surgeon. He will, for the present, be appointed on probation and started on Rs.90 per mensem. The Senior Surgeon will be asked to report, after the expiry of one year from date of appointment, as to his fitness for the post and eligibility for confirmation, when the question of increments to be given to him, may be further considered and decided.

4. Mr. Shiva Rao is at present a Clerk in the General and Revenue Secretariat on Rs.70 per mensem, is working immediately under the Second Councillor and has passed the B.A., Revenue Higher, and Accounts Examinations and has put in a service of nearly 15 years.

5. The Second Councillor has no objection to the proposed arrangement, which may be sanctioned.

Mr Dehyuta Row's d.o, dated 20/7/13 of the 2nd Councillor's remarks thereon :—

Note

1. Mr Dehyuta Row wants for the vacant post of Manager of the S. Surgeon's office a candidate who satisfies the following conditions :-

(a) Who is near 100 – 150 grade —

(b) who is a good Manager

& (c) who is also a good accountant.

2. If the selection is made from the G.R.S. Staff, the 3rd condition cannot be fully complied with. We have candidates who have passed the Accounts Test but very few who are practically trained in accounting.

3. I consider any one of the following will do well :-

		Pay
(i)	B. Ramaiya B.A	100
(ii)	N. Sreenivasa Iyengar B.A. AL	100
(iii)	P. V. Thiruvengadam Mudaliar	100
(iv)	K. S. Rama Iyer B.A:	94

All these have qualified

I doubt if any of these officials will care to go as Manager of the General Surgeon's office, as this will constitute a final prospect of promotion. Even [illegible]

Re Mr. Hyams selection of an Official from the Comptrollers Office, for the vacant post of the Manager of this Office is mainly based upon the consideration of the Official in question being a Cost accountant. In the case of the Manager of the Office of the H.P. of a large Steel Works he must be much more than a mere Accountant as the term itself signifies, he must possess powers of managing the Office in all its branches & of controlling all the commercial affairs. These two qualities cannot be expected to be present in an Official who has, from the beginning of his service, been working beyond working among all figures. If the Mr. Hyams case wants this accounts to be audited, there is always the P.A. staff which can help him in doing this part, an outside audit like this, is much more satisfactory than one conducted by an Official of the Office itself, even if he happens to be the Chief Official

I believe there is no legislation in remuneration
this matter strictly for the Manager who is bachelor man, & and a yearly boy
boy. A reference to the list shows that he is drawing
at present a pay of Rs 120 +
Rs 25-0-0, married allowance.
Even if he was entitled to 1st Clk. pay under Rule 81-(a)
would reach his maximum of Rs 120 in four years time.
In view of this circumstance
I propose that he should start on Rs 120-0-0 at least & not be required to start on the minimum pay of Rs 100-0-0
It would be highly unfair to Veeris loss of emolument
if we did not show him
at least this concession.
His general character appears very favourable & deserves
consideration at our hands.
Ref. I think Art 86 (a). & the

such a concession.

Routine Notes.

From the records available in the Comptroller's office it appears that Mr. Srinivasaya's substantive pay is Rs 180 in the scale 80 – 10 – 120. So under the rules if he is appointed in the grade 100 – 10 – 150 he will begin on Rs 110. If he is to be given a higher start it will be a case outside the rules. I do not consider that there is any thing necessarily exceptional in appointing a manager for the Seringapatam office for giving outside the M. S. Regulations. But if Mr. Srinivasaya has of necessity to be appointed there is some reason for making an exception in his case and starting him on Rs 120 as his salary stands at that figure now & will remain at that figure if he is not disturbed

6/8/13

In ordinary course some one should be selected who can be started on the minimum so as not to cause extra expenditure.

N.B.—Should routine notes be written on small slips, the notes must be copied, or slips pasted on this form.

Mr Srinivasacharyar in his letter, dated 10th inst to the Dep^t Com^r has expressed his unwillingness to take up the appt in question but has requested that with consideration of his increased cost of living as Bangalore & the fact that he has been drawing Rs 120 + 25 (local allce) as Assistant for the past 3½ years, he may be given the maximum pay of the manager viz Rs 150. Extract from the Second Councillors's D.O.

22nd August 1913, to the Dewan.

Out of the four names suggested by the Senior Surgeon for the Managership of his office, I think S. Shiva Rao is the most suitable person for the place, all things considered. He is honest and reliable, above all, from my experince of the man for the past six months or so. He should do very well indeed. Although I shall be losing the services of a good man, I shall not, on principle, stand in his way of getting a promotion.

As regards reducing the scale on this occasion, I am not in favour of it. If the Senior Surgeon's selection of men was confined to those drawing only Rs.70, there is no good reason why the selected man should suffer in emoluments for no fault of his. Whoever it be, he must be allowed to draw the minimum pay of the sanctioned scale, i.e. Rs.100. The Senior Surgeon may submit his proposals, if nay, regarding the re-organization of his office establishment, in due course. But in the meantime, it would be scarcely just or fair to cut down the minimum to Rs.80 as suggested by him in his D.O. written after the interview he had with you.

I hope you will kindly see the injustice involved in the action proposed and agree with me. Even with the present scale, the Senior Surgeon had to go abegging for candidates who did not care to accept the appointment for the simple reason that once they get into that office there is no further hope of getting out of it into any other department. It would thus be a grave mistake to reduce the scale at all, at any rate, for the present.

Sir

The manager of my office having retired with effect from the 20th May 1913 I have to nominate a duly qualified and capable official for the vacant post which carries a salary of Rs: 100/- rising to Rs: 150/- per mensem.

Want of proper checking and auditing of accounts of such Institutions has before now led to irregularities and even the appointment of a Commission to try a case of defalcations.

The Victoria Hospital and the General Hospital Mysore are audited by an outside auditor deputed by the Comptroller.

The accounts of the District Hospitals, certain big medical Institutions and offices of the District Sanitary officers need auditing badly and the work has to be done by the manager of my office.

The official next in rank to the manager in my office is the Head clerk drawing a salary of Rs: 65/- p. m. I do not consider him fit for the vacant appointment and the others below him are in receipt of Rs: 50/- p. m and less.

I had long ago verbally requested the Comptroller to kindly spare an official from his office who in addition to possessing the requisite capability to manage a big office should be thoroughly well versed in auditing accounts.

On receipt of definite orders of the Government sanctioning the retirement of the manager I wrote a D.O. to the Comptroller to kindly intimate the name of the official he had selected and I herewith submit the Comptroller's reply to my reference

Under the circumstances detailed above I have the honour to request you will be so good as to obtain orders of the Government permitting me to appoint Mr. C. Rajanna Rao, named in the enclosure, as the manager of the office of the Senior Surgeon to the Govt: of Mysore

My dear Mr. Achyuta Rao,

I have your letter of the 22nd instant asking me to suggest the name of a member of my office for the vacant place of the Manager of your establishment. I understand that the qualifications you look for in the candidate are capacity to manage the office and a good knowledge of accounts. I can recommend a hand possessing both thesequalifications. His name is C.Raghunatha Rao and he is an Assistant Examiner on Rs.100 in the grade of Rs.70-5-100. He is now the Superintendent of the Local Audit Department of my office and has himself worked as a local auditor for some time. If you want any more particulars of him I dare say you can make enquiries and ascertain them. If you think that he will be a suitable man for your office I have no objection to spare him. Sir,

With reference to your No. 9843 Medl. 55-12-3 dated the 11th June 1913 regarding the abolition of the post of Manager of my office so as to provide for the pay of a whole time Personal Assistant to the Senior Surgeon, I have the honor to state as follows:

2. It seems to me that a Personal Assistant of the rank of a Gazetted Officer can scarcely be expected to efficiently fill the place of a Manager of an office. The latter post requires a knowledge of office routine and procedure which a Gazetted Officer does not generally possess to any appreciable extent. It is not his fault that it is so since his training education and even ambitions lie in different spheres. A Manager to be a success as such should love office routine and procedure for its own sake and not view it as either dry or derogatory to his rank. It is indeed difficult to conceive the efficient working of an office without a Manager in this sense.

3. It will manifestly be an advantage if the person selected for this post possesses knowledge and experience of not only office management and recording but also of accounts and audit. The latter qualification will be of great use in an office such as the Senior Surgeon's where numerous contingent and travelling allowance bills have to be dealt with No Gazetted Officer in the Departments under my control possesses in my opinion these qualifications indispensable for efficient management of a big office. It was under these circumstances that I made the proposal regarding the appointment of Mr. C. Raghunatha Rao as the Manager of my office.

4. Public business has already suffered to some extent by the delay that has occurred in filling the vacancy in an office which if anything is undermanned. I fully expected that there would be little difficulty in securing the early sanction of Government to my proposal as it related to a post provided for in the permanent scale and as my nomination of the candidate was based on the recommendation of the Comptroller.

5. I trust that the considerations referred to above will make it plain that a Manager will be absolutely necessary in public interests for the good management of the office even if a whole time Personal Assistant be proposed and sanctioned for the Senior Surgeon. Financially it is true that the abolition of the post of the Manager would set free some money to meet the additional charge that would be necessitated by the employment of a whole time Personal Assistant; but administratively the suggested change would in my humble opinion prove nothing less than disastrous to the best interests of office office routine and procedure. For it is self evident that a Supervisor who knows the details of the office work thoroughly well can instruct control and guide the subordinate clerks far better than one who is wanting in such knowledge.

6. To save further loss of time therefore I would respectfully urge that this point may be considered by Government on its own merits and orders passed as early as convenient.

7. I shall name and submit my proposals about Personal Assistant separately for the orders of Government with due regard to the desirability of avoiding much additional cost and also the demands of the exigencies of the Departments entrusted to my charge.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
